

2nd Annual
April Fools Rule at Rahr's

an evening of
Red, Blue and Purple Political Fun

League of Women Voters of Tarrant County
Benefits NONPARTISAN Voter Education Initiatives

What

- A casual event for hundreds ~ draws good sports from all parts of Tarrant County
- Entertainment by singers, jesters, jokers, musicians...and a roving reporter or two
- Silent Auction ~ a trove of treats and treasures at your bidding
- Friendly shenanigans ruled by fun-loving Fools (LWV members and volunteers)

When

- April 5, 2012 (the 1st Thursday after April Fools Day)
- 6:30 – 9:30 p.m.

Where

- Rahr & Sons Brewing Company, 701 Galveston Ave., Fort Worth 76104
- Ticket Price: $25. Includes "strolling food" and Rahr's beer

Why

- Raise funds to produce and publicize nonpartisan Voters Guides and Candidate Videos
- Good government isn't created at the polls, but it starts there.
- Since the 1500s, April Fools is a time for foolishness and good humor.
- Let's call a coffee-tea truce and share some laughter!

Who

- LWVTC is a nonpartisan 501c(4) with 501c(3) Education Fund for tax-deductible donations.
- Our diverse membership (women and men age 18 up) is led by a 10-member Board of Directors.
- The League of Women Voters encourages informed and active participation in government.
- We encourage all candidates willing to stand for public office, BUT we endorse none.
